

Cape May County-Wide Recovery Initiative -- Revised: May 17, 9am

Recommended Date / Revised Recommendation:	Industry/Location:	Operating Practices Require:	Governmental Status:
Now	Agriculture / Farm Stands	Must adhere to social distancing, sanitation best practices including wearing PPE where appropriate, and any industry-specific guidance provided by government or trade association	- Currently Permitted under NJ Stay-at-Home Order: EO 107, Section 8
Now	Bars (Take Out Only)	Only permitted to sell take out; must adhere to social distancing, sanitation best practices including wearing PPE where appropriate, and any industry-specific guidance provided by government or trade association	- Currently Permitted under NJ Stay-at-Home Order: EO 107, Section 8
Tuesday, May 26 Monday, June 8	Bars (Outdoor Seating / Dining)	Adjusting operating practices to: - Maximum capacity of either 75% of International Building Fire Marshall Code or distancing all tables 6 feet apart, whichever provides the greater social distancing between groups (excluding private rooms) - May work with local governments to gain access to outdoor areas for service - May NOT engage in events or parties that would violate social distancing or other close contact - May only operate until midnight - Requiring adherence to social distancing, sanitation best practices including wearing PPE where appropriate, and the New Jersey Restaurant and Hospitality Association guidelines: "Stay Dining" for safe operation	- Federally supported if health situation satisfies entering into PHASE TWO of the Federal Opening Up America Again Guidelines - Requires lifting of NJ Stay-at-Home Order (EO 107), or amending to include exemptions therein, permitting sit-down dining
Monday, June 1 Monday, June 15	Bars (Indoor Dining)	Adjusting operating practices to: - Maximum capacity of either 65% of International Building Fire Marshall Code or distancing all tables 6 feet apart, whichever provides the greater social distancing between groups (excluding private rooms) - May work with local governments to gain access to outdoor areas for service - May NOT engage in events or parties that would violate social distancing or other close contact - May only operate until midnight - Requiring adherence to social distancing, sanitation best practices including wearing PPE where appropriate, and the New Jersey Restaurant and Hospitality Association guidelines: "Stay Dining" for safe operation	- Federally supported if health situation satisfies entering into PHASE TWO of the Federal Opening Up America Again Guidelines - Requires lifting of NJ Stay-at-Home Order (EO 107), or amending to include exemptions therein, permitting sit-down dining
Now	Breweries / Distilleries (Take Out Only)	Only permitted to sell take out; must adhere to social distancing, sanitation best practices including wearing PPE where appropriate, and any industry-specific guidance provided by government or trade association	- Currently Permitted under NJ Stay-at-Home Order: EO 107, Section 8
Tuesday, May 26 Monday, June 8	Breweries / Distilleries (Outdoor Sales / Seating)	Adjusting operating practices to: - Maximum capacity of either 75% of International Building Fire Marshall Code or distancing all tables 6 feet apart, whichever provides the greater social distancing between groups (excluding private rooms) - May work with local governments to gain access to outdoor areas for service - May NOT engage in events or parties that would violate social distancing or other close contact - May only operate until midnight - Requiring adherence to social distancing, sanitation best practices including wearing PPE where appropriate, and the New Jersey Restaurant and Hospitality Association guidelines: "Stay Dining" for safe operation	- Federally supported if health situation satisfies entering into PHASE TWO of the Federal Opening Up America Again Guidelines - Requires lifting of NJ Stay-at-Home Order (EO 107), or amending to include exemptions therein, permitting on-site sales
Monday, June 1 Monday, June 15	Breweries / Distilleries (Indoor Sales / Seating)	Adjusting operating practices to: - Maximum capacity of either 65% of International Building Fire Marshall Code or distancing all tables 6 feet apart, whichever provides the greater social distancing between groups (excluding private rooms) - May work with local governments to gain access to outdoor areas for service - May NOT engage in events or parties that would violate social distancing or other close contact - May only operate until midnight - Requiring adherence to social distancing, sanitation best practices including wearing PPE where appropriate, and the New Jersey Restaurant and Hospitality Association guidelines: "Stay Dining" for safe operation	- Federally supported if health situation satisfies entering into PHASE TWO of the Federal Opening Up America Again Guidelines - Requires lifting of NJ Stay-at-Home Order (EO 107), or amending to include exemptions therein, permitting on-site sales
Now	Campgrounds (Seasonal Customers)	Requiring adherence to social distancing and crowd-size requirements, sanitation best practices including wearing PPE where appropriate, and any industry-specific guidance provided by government or trade association	- Permitted by NJ Order Concerning Parks, Golf, and Campground (EO 133)
Monday, June 1	Campgrounds (Transient Customers)	Requiring adherence to social distancing and crowd-size requirements, sanitation best practices including wearing PPE where appropriate, and any industry-specific guidance provided by government or trade association	- To be permitted by order of the Cape May County Board of Chosen Freeholders rescinding or amending Resolution 250-20 - Requires lifting of NJ Stay-at-Home Order (EO 107), or amending exemptions therein, permitting non-essential travel
Now	Child Care Centers (Only Children of Essential Persons)	Requiring authorization by the NJ Department of Children and Family as well as adherence to social distancing, sanitation best practices including wearing PPE where appropriate, and any industry-specific guidance provided by government or trade association	- Currently Permitted by the State under NJ Child Care Order: EO 110, Section 2
Monday, June 1	Child Care Centers (Children of General Public)	Requiring adherence to social distancing, sanitation best practices including wearing PPE where appropriate, and any industry-specific guidance provided by government or trade association	- Requires lifting of NJ Child Care Order (EO 110), or amending to include exemptions therein, permitting the children of the general public
Now	Commercial Recreational Activities - Golf Courses	Requiring adherence to social distancing, sanitation best practices including wearing PPE where appropriate, and any industry-specific guidance provided by government or trade association	- Permitted by NJ Order Concerning Parks, Golf, and Campground (EO 133)

Recommended Date / Revised Recommendation:	Industry/Location:	Operating Practices Require:	Governmental Status:
Monday, May 18	Commercial Recreational Activities - Mini-Golf	Requiring adherence to social distancing, sanitation best practices including wearing PPE where appropriate, and any industry-specific guidance provided by government or trade association	- Federally supported if health situation satisfies entering into PHASE ONE of the Federal Opening Up America Again Guidelines - Requires lifting of NJ Stay-at-Home Order, or amending to include exemptions therein, permitting non-essential business
Monday, June 8 Monday, June 15	Commercial Recreational Activities - Indoor (Bowling Alleys, Movie Theaters, etc.)	Requiring adherence to social distancing, sanitation best practices including wearing PPE where appropriate, and any industry-specific guidance provided by government or trade association	- Federally supported if health situation satisfies entering into PHASE ONE of the Federal Opening Up America Again Guidelines - Requires lifting of NJ Stay-at-Home Order, or amending to include exemptions therein, permitting non-essential business
Monday, May 18	Commercial Recreational Activities - Rentals: Bicycles	Requiring adherence to social distancing, sanitation best practices including wearing PPE where appropriate, and any industry-specific guidance provided by government or trade association	- Federally supported if health situation satisfies entering into PHASE ONE of the Federal Opening Up America Again Guidelines - Requires lifting of NJ Stay-at-Home Order, or amending to include exemptions therein, permitting non-essential business
Monday, May 18 Sunday, May 17 Now	Commercial Recreational Activities - Rentals: Boating	Adjusting operating practices to: - Requiring adherence to social distancing, sanitation best practices including wearing PPE where appropriate, and any industry-specific guidance provided by government or trade association - Adhere to additional restrictions imposed by NJ Order Reopening Watercraft Rentals (EO 146)	- Permitted by NJ Order Reopening Watercraft Rentals (EO 146)
Now	Construction (Essential)	Must adhere to social distancing, sanitation best practices including wearing PPE where appropriate, any industry-specific guidance provided by trade association, and NJ governmental restrictions issued under EO 122	- Currently Permitted under NJ Construction Restrictions Order: EO 122, Section 2
Monday, May 11 Monday, May 18	Construction, Maintenance (Non-Essential)	Requiring adherence to social distancing and crowd-size requirements, sanitation best practices including wearing PPE where appropriate, and any industry-specific guidance provided by government or trade association	- Permitted under NJ Non-Essential Construction Order: EO 142, effective Monday, May 18
TBD	Festivals and Other Large Special Event Gatherings	- Opening permitted only if in accordance with health recommendations at the time of the festival - Requiring adherence to social distancing, sanitation best practices including wearing PPE where appropriate, and any industry-specific guidance provided by government or trade association	- Federally supported if health situation satisfies entering into PHASE THREE of the Federal Opening Up America Again Guidelines - Requires lifting of NJ Stay-at-Home Order, or amending to include exemptions therein, permitting loosening of social distancing restrictions
Monday, June 1	Hotels (Operating at Limited Capacity)	Adjusting operating practices to: - Permit only 60% of capacity - Requiring adherence to social distancing, sanitation best practices including wearing PPE where appropriate, and the New Jersey Restaurant and Hospitality Association guidelines: "Stay Safe" for safe operation	- To be permitted by order of the Cape May County Board of Chosen Freeholders rescinding or amending Resolution 250-20 - Requires lifting of NJ Stay-at-Home Order (EO 107), or amending to include exemptions therein, permitting non-essential travel
Monday, June 22	Hotels (Operating at Full Capacity)	Adjusting operating practices to: - Permit up to 100% of capacity - Requiring adherence to social distancing, sanitation best practices including wearing PPE where appropriate, and the New Jersey Restaurant and Hospitality Association guidelines: "Stay Safe" for safe operation	- To be permitted by order of the Cape May County Board of Chosen Freeholders rescinding or amending Resolution 250-20 - Requires lifting of NJ Stay-at-Home Order (EO 107), or amending to include exemptions therein, permitting non-essential travel
Now	Marinas	Requiring adherence to social distancing and crowd-size requirements, sanitation best practices including wearing PPE where appropriate, and any industry-specific guidance provided by government or trade association	- Currently Permitted under NJ Stay-at-Home Order: EO 107
Tuesday, May 26	Museums, Historic Sites, Tour Groups, and Jitney Services	Requiring adherence to social distancing and crowd-size requirements, sanitation best practices including wearing PPE where appropriate, and any industry-specific guidance provided by government or trade association	- Federally supported if health situation satisfies entering into PHASE ONE of the Federal Opening Up America Again Guidelines - Requires lifting of NJ Stay-at-Home Order, or amending to include exemptions therein, permitting non-essential business
Now	Places of Worship (Churches, Synagogues, etc.) - Car Services	Requiring adherence to social distancing and crowd-size requirements, sanitation best practices including wearing PPE where appropriate, and any industry-specific guidance provided by government or trade association	- Currently Permitted under NJ Gatherings in Cars Order: EO 142
Saturday, May 23	Places of Worship (Churches, Synagogues, etc.) - Indoor Services	Requiring adherence to social distancing and crowd-size requirements, sanitation best practices including wearing PPE where appropriate, and any industry-specific guidance provided by government or trade association	- Federally supported if health situation satisfies entering into PHASE ONE of the Federal Opening Up America Again Guidelines - Requires lifting of NJ Stay-at-Home Order (EO 107), or amending to include exemptions therein, permitting non-essential retail purchases
Now	Public Space: Beaches (Recreational Use)	Limiting access to active recreation, including walking, jogging, fishing, and other activities that can only be accomplished with appropriate social distancing	- Requires Municipal Permissions - Currently Permitted by the State under NJ Stay-at-Home Order: EO 107, Section 2, Exception 6
Monday, June 1 Friday, May 22	Public Space: Beaches (Full Use)	Open for active and passive recreation access that can be accomplished with appropriate social distancing	- Permitted by NJ Order Opening Beaches (EO 143), effective Friday, May 22
Now	Public Space: Boardwalks (Restaurant Access)	Limiting use of boardwalk to accessing essential businesses, such as take-out food	- Requires Municipal Permissions - Currently Permitted by the State under NJ Stay-at-Home Order: EO 107, Section 2, Exception 6

Recommended Date / Revised Recommendation:	Industry/Location:	Operating Practices Require:	Governmental Status:
Monday, May 11 Now	Public Space: Boardwalks (Recreational Access)	Limiting access to active recreation, including walking, jogging, and other activities that can only be accomplished with appropriate social distancing	- Requires Municipal Permissions - Currently Permitted by the State under NJ Stay-at-Home Order: EO 107, Section 2, Exception 6
Monday, June 1	Public Space: Boardwalks / Games	Requiring adherence to social distancing, sanitation best practices including wearing PPE where appropriate, and any additional guidance	- Federally supported if health situation satisfies entering into PHASE ONE of the Federal Opening Up America Again Guidelines (may vary by business located there) - Requires lifting of NJ Stay-at-Home Order, or amending to include exemptions therein, permitting non-essential travel
Monday, June 1 Monday, June 15	Public Space: Boardwalks / Commercial Recreational Attractions (Rides, Water Parks, Arcades, etc.)	Requiring adherence to social distancing, sanitation best practices including wearing PPE where appropriate, and any additional guidance	- Federally supported if health situation satisfies entering into PHASE ONE of the Federal Opening Up America Again Guidelines (may vary by business located there) - Requires lifting of NJ Stay-at-Home Order, or amending to include exemptions therein, permitting non-essential travel
Now	Public Space: State & County Parks	Limiting access to active recreation, including walking, jogging, and other activities that can only be accomplished with appropriate social distancing	- Permitted by NJ Order Concerning Parks, Golf, and Campground (EO 133)
Monday, May 11 Now	Public Space: Municipal Parks, Bike Paths, etc.	Limiting access to active recreation, including walking, jogging, and other activities that can only be accomplished with appropriate social distancing	- Requires Municipal Permissions
Now	Public Space: County Zoo	Requiring adherence to social distancing and crowd-size requirements, sanitation best practices including wearing PPE where appropriate, and any industry-specific guidance provided by government or trade association	- Permitted by NJ Order Concerning Parks, Golf, and Campground (EO 133)
Monday, May 18 Sunday, May 17 Now	Recreational Fishing	Adjusting operating practices to: - Permit only 50% of capacity or distancing of groups 6 feet apart, whichever provides the greater social distancing between groups - Requiring adherence to social distancing, sanitation best practices including wearing PPE where appropriate, and any industry-specific guidance provided by government or trade association - Adhere to additional restrictions imposed by NJ Order Reopening Charter Fishing (EO 146)	- Permitted by NJ Order Reopening Charter Fishing (EO 146)
Now	Restaurants (Take Out Only)	Only permitted to sell take out; must adhere to social distancing, sanitation best practices including wearing PPE where appropriate, and any industry-specific guidance provided by government or trade association	- Requires lifting of NJ Stay-at-Home Order (EO 107), or amending to include exemptions therein, permitting sit-down dining
Tuesday, May 26 Monday, June 8	Restaurants (Outdoor Seating / Dining)	Adjusting operating practices to: - Maximum capacity of either 75% of International Building Fire Marshall Code or distancing all tables 6 feet apart, whichever provides the greater social distancing between groups (excluding private rooms) - May work with local governments to gain access to outdoor areas for service - May NOT engage in events or parties that would violate social distancing or other close contact - Requiring adherence to social distancing, sanitation best practices including wearing PPE where appropriate, and the New Jersey Restaurant and Hospitality Association guidelines: "Stay Dining" for safe operation	- Federally supported if health situation satisfies entering into PHASE ONE of the Federal Opening Up America Again Guidelines - Requires lifting of NJ Stay-at-Home Order (EO 107), or amending to include exemptions therein, permitting sit-down dining
Monday, June 1 Monday, June 15	Restaurants (Indoor Dining)	Adjusting operating practices to: - Maximum capacity of either 65% of International Building Fire Marshall Code or distancing all tables 6 feet apart, whichever provides the greater social distancing between groups (excluding private rooms) - May work with local governments to gain access to outdoor areas for service - May NOT engage in events or parties that would violate social distancing or other close contact - Requiring adherence to social distancing, sanitation best practices including wearing PPE where appropriate, and the New Jersey Restaurant and Hospitality Association guidelines: "Stay Dining" for safe operation	- Federally supported if health situation satisfies entering into PHASE ONE of the Federal Opening Up America Again Guidelines - Requires lifting of NJ Stay-at-Home Order, or amending to include exemptions therein, permitting sit-down dining
Now	Retail (Essential)	Must adhere to social distancing, sanitation best practices including wearing PPE where appropriate, and any industry-specific guidance provided by government or trade association	- Currently Permitted under NJ Stay-at-Home Order: EO 107, Section 7
Monday, May 11 Monday, May 18	Retail (Non-Essential; Pick Up)	Only permitted to sell by pick-up; must adhere to social distancing, sanitation best practices including wearing PPE where appropriate, and any industry-specific guidance provided by government or trade association	- Permitted under NJ Curbside Pickup at Non-Essential Retail Businesses Order: EO 142, effective Monday, May 18
Monday, June 1	Retail (Non-Essential; In-Store Shopping)	Adjusting operating practices to: - Limiting capacity to the number of people in the store at one time that can practically maintain social distancing of six feet - Requiring adherence to social distancing, sanitation best practices including wearing PPE where appropriate, and any industry-specific guidance provided by government or trade association	- Federally supported if health situation satisfies entering into PHASE ONE of the Federal Opening Up America Again Guidelines - Requires lifting of NJ Stay-at-Home Order (EO 107), or amending to include exemptions therein, permitting in-store retail purchases

Recommended Date / Revised Recommendation:	Industry/Location:	Operating Practices Require:	Governmental Status:
Monday, May 11 Now	Rentals (Seasonal: Duration Greater than 30 days, including Seasonal Employees)	Requiring adherence to social distancing, sanitation best practices including wearing PPE where appropriate, and the New Jersey Realty Association guidelines for safe operation of real estate offices and rental properties	- To be permitted by order of the Cape May County Board of Chosen Freeholders rescinding or amending Resolution 250-20 - Requires lifting of NJ Stay-at-Home Order (EO 107), or amending to include exemptions therein, permitting non-essential travel
Monday, June 1	Rentals (Duration Less than 30 days)	Requiring adherence to social distancing, sanitation best practices including wearing PPE where appropriate, and the New Jersey Realty Association guidelines for safe operation of real estate offices and rental properties	- To be permitted by order of the Cape May County Board of Chosen Freeholders rescinding or amending Resolution 250-20 - Requires lifting of NJ Stay-at-Home Order (EO 107), or amending to include exemptions therein, permitting non-essential travel
Monday, May 18 Monday, May 26	Service Businesses (Barbershops, Nail Salons, Gyms, etc.)	Adjusting operating practices to: - Limiting capacity to the number of people at one time that can practically maintain social distancing of six feet between clients - Requiring adherence to social distancing, sanitation best practices including wearing PPE where appropriate, and any industry specific guidance provided by government or trade association	- Federally supported if health situation satisfies entering into PHASE ONE of the Federal Opening Up America Again Guidelines - Requires lifting of NJ Stay-at-Home Order (EO 107), or amending to include exemptions therein, permitting service businesses such as barbershops, nail salons, and gyms
Monday, May 18	Sightseeing Vessels	Adjusting operating practices to: - Permit only 50% of capacity or distancing of groups 6 feet apart, whichever provides the greater social distancing between groups - Requiring adherence to social distancing, sanitation best practices including wearing PPE where appropriate, and any industry specific guidance provided by government or trade association	- Federally supported if health situation satisfies entering into PHASE ONE of the Federal Opening Up America Again Guidelines - Requires lifting of NJ Stay-at-Home Order (EO 107), or amending NJ Order Reopening Boating permit groups larger than 10
Now	Technology	Requiring adherence to social distancing and crowd-size requirements, sanitation best practices including wearing PPE where appropriate, and any industry-specific guidance provided by government or trade association	- Currently Permitted under NJ Stay-at-Home Order: EO 107, Section 7
Now	Wineries (Take Out Only)	Only permitted to sell take out; must adhere to social distancing, sanitation best practices including wearing PPE where appropriate, and any industry-specific guidance provided by government or trade association	- Currently Permitted under NJ Stay-at-Home Order: EO 107, Section 8
Tuesday, May 26 Monday, June 8	Wineries (Outdoor Sales / Tastings)	Adjusting operating practices to: - Maximum capacity of either 75% of International Building Fire Marshall Code or distancing all tables 6 feet apart, whichever provides the greater social distancing between groups (excluding private rooms) - May work with local governments to gain access to outdoor areas for service - May NOT engage in events or parties that would violate social distancing or other close contact - May only operate until midnight - Requiring adherence to social distancing, sanitation best practices including wearing PPE where appropriate, and the New Jersey Restaurant and Hospitality Association guidelines: "Stay Dining" for safe operation	- Federally supported if health situation satisfies entering into PHASE TWO of the Federal Opening Up America Again Guidelines - Requires lifting of NJ Stay-at-Home Order (EO 107), or amending to include exemptions therein, permitting on-site sales
Monday, June 1 Monday, June 15	Wineries (Indoor Sales / Tastings)	Adjusting operating practices to: - Maximum capacity of either 65% of International Building Fire Marshall Code or distancing all tables 6 feet apart, whichever provides the greater social distancing between groups (excluding private rooms) - May work with local governments to gain access to outdoor areas for service - May NOT engage in events or parties that would violate social distancing or other close contact - May only operate until midnight - Requiring adherence to social distancing, sanitation best practices including wearing PPE where appropriate, and the New Jersey Restaurant and Hospitality Association guidelines: "Stay Dining" for safe operation	- Federally supported if health situation satisfies entering into PHASE TWO of the Federal Opening Up America Again Guidelines - Requires lifting of NJ Stay-at-Home Order (EO 107), or amending to include exemptions therein, permitting on-site sales